To the Legislative Assembly of the Hawatian Islands in Legislature assembled : The undersigned, members of the Honolulu Chamber Commerce, respectfully petition your Honorable Body to repeal so much of Section 516 of the Civil Code as levies specific duties on Sugars, Molasses, Syrups of Sugars, and Coffee, and | mencement of Volume XVII of the PACIFIC also the Act of Dec. 50th, 1864, levying a specific duty on COMMERCIAL ADVERTISER on July 6th. The understated would respectfully represent that in their opinion this specific duty on these articles is vertainly excepates unequally and unjustly upon certain interests. Raw Sogars and Coffee are very soldom if ever imported other Islands, $5.00. into this country, and are not likely to be. The exceptional duty on Rice discourages trade with China, and taxes unjustly a single class of our laboring population to whore Rice is considered a necessary article of food. The quality of China Rice is quite different from that raised in these calands, and the operation of the duty is simply to compel our Chinese laboring classes to buy a more expensive article than they require, for the benefit of a few.

That benefit is more apparent than real, he the price of our roduct of Rice is regulated by the San Francisco market, for their money, for while there are fifty-two where it is most all shipped. The profit of the Rice culture in these islands depends upon that market, and experience has shown that this protective duty does not increase it. The has therefore, while it keeps from the revenue the duties which might be estlected at 10 per cent, on Rice imported from China, does not nid the Rice culture of this Kingdom. As cheap living for all laboring classes is essential for success of living to so large a part of our laboring population, the undecaigned trust that your Honorable Body will give favorable consideration to this petition.

To the Legislative Assembly of the Hawatian Islands, in Legislatura Assembled, His Ex. P. Nahaolehua, Presi-The undersigned, members of the Honolula Chamber of speech in full, on Thursday last on the proposed rately. The speech is an important one, setting forth briefly but clearly some of the principal reasons for the proposed amendment, and showing very plainly how shallow and insincere were the grounds of sperm on the passage out, which has been shipped to this port. The first officer having brought the vessel out,—Captain John Heppingstone took command and salled the following day for Kawalhae. we venture to assert, that ever was heard before in a deliberative Assembly, delivered in his usual toology.

I. Characteristics Assembly, delivered in his usual toology. deliberative Assembly, delivered in his usual toplofty | L. Chase; assumpsit. style by the Minister of Foreign Relations on Saturday. After this rambling, pointless speech had been carefully interpreted word for word, and His Excellency had resumed his seat, it was difficult to decide what ideas were uppermost in the minds of the native members-a convention of whales in the Arctic Ocean, or the fact that some of the honorable gentlemen present had sat as members during some previous session, and that in the Minister's opiniou they were not yet in their dotage. The final vote by which the amendment was rejected, proved two things, viz: That had the Estates been voting separately, the Representatives would have passed the amendment; and second, that it has grown in favor with the people since the last session, there having been eighteen who voted aye on Saturday against ten in 1870. The ministerial plan of carrying on a printing office in opposition to private enterprise, was again anotioned for the next two years, by the appropriation of $12,000. The refusal by Ministers to refer the item to a special committee for investigation into the receipts and expenditures of the Government Press during the past two years, very plainly showed that the thing would not bear examination. His Excellency of the Finances, in undertaking to tell how the PACIFIC COMMERCIAL ADVERTISER establishment is carried on, succeeded in showing that he knew nothing about it. The fact might have been stated in connection with this subject, that the proprietors of this journal have, within the present year, made a formal offer to Government to execute all the public printing and print the Gaz " besides. at r tes which would save to the Tre .ry from $3,000 to $4,000 per annum. We have not the slightest objection to Ministers running two or three journals to defend themselves before the public, but we do and ever shall protest against their carrying on a newspaper and job printing establishment, in opposition to private enterprise, on capital drawn from the public treasury. It would be just as fair and proper for them to take the public funds with which to carry on the house-building, blacksmithing, coopering, or any other mechanical pursuit in this city, and running their establishments cheaply by reason of paying no duties on stock, no rents, taxes or water-rates, thus compete with great advantage over our carpenters, blacksmiths and coopers. Or in the same manner they might establish a wholesale and retail general merchandise business, or carry on a sugar plantation. A disgraceful scene occurred in the Assembly on Saturday which goes far to corroborate the statement made by an honorable gentleman on Thursday, that under our present system the Legislature is deteriogentleman for words used in calm debate, displayed his eminent fitness for his position by throwing a copy of the statutes at the latter's head, thus in reality and not theoretically "taking the law into his own hands,"-and would have thrown an inkwhich is unheard of in parliamentary bodies, and in implied contravention with the rules of the Assembly. But they have an original way of doing some things_

the $116,000 debt incurred for building the Hawaiian Hotel was an interesting one. Hons. Messrs. Carter and Judd (A. F.) spoke at length on the question, and both speeches told with such galling Report of Schooner C. M. Ward, Capt. Rickman.—

| Capter upon the two prime movers in the scheme as to leave them with hardly a (moral) leg to stand on, so to speak. Mr. Carter urged the illegality of the issuance of the so-called hotel bonds with great force, and as the speeches in reply did not touch upon this point it must be conceded that he was correct. The Minister of Foreign Affairs was particularly vehement in his disavowal of any intention or thought of making any money out of the transaction, and we have no doubt of his entire disinterestedness in the making any money out of the transaction, and we have no doubt of his entire disinterestedness in the making any money out of the transaction, and we have no doubt of his entire disinterestedness in the making any money out of the transaction, and we have no doubt of his entire disinterestedness in the making any money out of the transaction, and to speak. will pass, and we would advise the gentlemen who signed the bonds to secure as many as they can, as His Ex. the Minister of Foreign Affairs tells us that should not be excluded from the debate on this bill they both being interested, but there is time enough for that. The question comes up again this morning and we expect to hear the ayes and noes taken on the question (of taxing each man, woman and child

......374,532 in the Kingdom two dollars to pay for the hotel) for 14 the first time. On Wednesday morning the subject of the item of $100,000 placed in the estimates for a new palace palace is unfit for the purpose, and that a new one is very much needed. The only question is, are we so circumstanced financially as to be able to build at was under discussion. All were agreed that the old Tor For Windward Ports—Per Kilanea, June 24th—Rev A til Farbes, A C Smith, H R Hitchcock, Hon S Kipi, E Turton, ev T Coan, Rev D B Lyman, Rev Jas Bicknell, Wm Kalabers, Goe Harbottle, Prof Chickering, Jas B Castle, C lifeder, Miss E Rowell, Mrs Wetmore and daughter, Miss S which may safely be put down to cost $200,000; the hotel, for which we are asked to pay $115,000; and some $200,000 more on other needed and contemply and the country of the purpose, and that a new one is very much needed. The only question is, are we so circumstanced financially as to be able to build at present? The devident policy of the ministry is to run the country deeply in debt, and then—what? We shall be at the mercy of bondholders, and when the deluge comes their Excellencies will doubtless be found to of the proposed palace occupied about the whole day, and took a very wide range, ending in passing the item at $50,000—half the sum asked for by the Min-

in his usual discursive, rambling style. Pretty much everything on the face of the earth or in the waters under the earth, pertinent or impertinent to the matter in band, was talked of. Taken altogether, never was a question before a Legislature more thoroughly discussed than this of the Hawaiian Hotel. But the main point, the legality of the action of the Minister of Finance in pledging the faith of the Government was systematically, if not skilfully dodged. His Excellency of Foreign Affairs ndeed said incidentally, that the faith of the Exeoffice branch of Government had been pledged by Ministers -not the faith of this Assembly -whi h is a peculiarly pretty distinction, and sufficiently enious. His Excellency in the concluding part his lengthy speech made what might be called sant of unanimity between His Majesty's advisers. It was not denied that there bad been differences of opinion, and the fair construction of Ris Excellencies words implied that there had been strong differences, but not, it was naively added, so strong but that Ministers could part on speaking terms, or even cat at the same table! In the exuberance of good feeling the Foreign Affairs declared his strong belief that the Interior was an honest man he himself also was an honest man! Some very usible and energetic speeches were made by naive members against the bill; but the Honolula deputation, as one man, both natives and foreigners were particularly severe in their denunciation of the unconstitutional course of the Ministry. Hon. Mr. Carter made the point that the Ministers of Foreign Affairs and of Finance, were not entitled vote on this question, under rule 11th of the Asmbly, which excludes any member who is permally interested in the result. This question the ON REAL ESTATE SECURITY. bair decided, erroneously, we think, could not be aised in Committee. Neither of the two interested parties however appeared to appreciate the indelicacy of their voting on a question in the decision of which by their own repeated assertions, they were ecuniarily interested to a large amount. After bree days spent in debating the question of postoning the first section, it was lost, by a decisive wote of 26 to 13; and thus the ruinous precedent is stablished of permitting Ministers to pledge the faith of the Government to whatever expenditure they may think proper. What will be the next "South Sea Bubble" in which Ministers will embark, it is difficult to guess, but for the next two years at all events they will have their full swing the bond-issuing business. The House agreed yesterday in Committee to appropriate $80,000 for the purchase of a new steamer for inter-island trade. In regard to this easure, it may be said that it is a far preferable vay of spending money than in building a botel, asmuch as the benefit to accrue to the nation at large is an evident one. The money will of course have to be borrowed, and while their hands are in, our legislators may as well be liberal. Perhaps the project of the Nanana valley road might meet with favor now, and as it would not probably be in order to renew the motion in its original shape. we beg to suggest an appropriation for a tunnel be in readiness for the coming railway, that Ministers may desire to build in a year or two. The Appropriation Bill has now about through Committee, and it is safe to say that it will foot up more than the Minister's estimate, which
